My Dear Sir: --

We have some old gold to send you for redemption. It consists of watch cases, solid, from 10k to 14k; on old rings same grade of gold. Chains, some 4k or 6k, some 14k and so on. There are other pieces of various values, and some pure nuggets. The whole with the paper box we weighted the stuff in weighs 3# avoirdupois, or 21,000 troy grains. What had we better do with it? Shall we send it to you, and if so to whom shall we address the package? Will U.S. Mint, Philadelphia, Pa. do? Inclosed find stamp for answer.

Yours truly,
W.H. Edwards
